A 12-Week Introduction to the Ethiopian Bible

Selected readings and source exercises. This is not a complete reading of all 81 books or a church liturgical calendar. Use an identified translation. Three 20–30-minute sessions per week is a suggested allowance; adjust to your pace.

Done	Week	Assignment	Keep this note
☐	1	Genesis 5:18–24; 6:1–8; Jude 14–15; church-hosted canon list	Define canon, translation, and edition separately.
☐	2	1 Enoch 1–5	Contrast ordered creation and human wrongdoing using passage references.
☐	3	1 Enoch 6–11; Genesis 6:1–8	Record what the Enoch narrative adds.
☐	4	1 Enoch 12–20	Track Enoch's role and named heavenly figures.
☐	5	1 Enoch 21–36	Describe the places and the explanations given.
☐	6	Jubilees 1–3; Genesis 1–3	Note the retelling's frame and organization.
☐	7	Jubilees 4–10; Genesis 5–9	Explain three additions or shifts of emphasis.
☐	8	Jubilees 15; 17–18; 23; Genesis 17 and 22	Examine covenant, testing, and chronology.
☐	9	Website Meqabyan introduction; church list OT entries 20–21; linked UBS translation source	Explain Meqabyan versus Greek Maccabees.
☐	10	Identified Meqabyan passage if available; otherwise translation-source notes	Record exactly which text you accessed. Leave unread-text conclusions open.
☐	11	Church list NT entries 28–35; website Book of Covenant introduction	Name the eight entries beyond the familiar 27.
☐	12	Week 1 notes plus an Enoch and a Jubilees passage	Write a revised explanation and choose your next reading.

Keep these notes for each reading

Text and translator • Passage • The text says • I infer • I need to check • My next question

Full instructions, source links and the free lesson: https://ethiopianbiblebooks.com/how-to-read-ethiopian-bible

Original schedule by EthiopianBibleBooks.com. Print for personal study or classroom discussion. Attribute the site when sharing. Linked texts retain their respective rights.